IIMA-Lyon Conference

13-15 November 2014

Welcome in Lyon

Lyon reveals its architecture through its districts, several of which are included in the UNESCO list of World Heritage sites.

The Lyon site encompasses in particular the Vieux Lyon (Old Lyon) and Presqu'île (Peninsula) historic districts, as well as Fourvière and Croix Rousse hills.

Lyon was founded in 43 BC and was the first capital of the Gauls. The city has preserved many archaeological relics. Today the Vieux Lyon is the largest, most homogenous Renaissance site in France. There are also typical courtyards, wells and shops, the magnificent Saint-Jean Cathedral, as well as the 'traboules', which are famous corridors that cross one or more buildings to connect streets to each other, letting people move from house to house.

The reputation of Lyon for fine cuisine was established centuries ago. Today it is maintained by several hundred Chefs. The Lyon region contains the greatest number of 'starred' Chefs. Several of the France's finest vineyards, including Beaujolais and Burgundy in the north and Côtes du Rhône in the south, begin at the gates of Lyon.

HBPSurG2014
Lyon International Meeting
November 13-15th, 2014
Congress Venue: Cité, Centre de Congrès, Lyon

A word of welcome

« HBP Surg 2014 » welcomes you in Lyon with the EFISDS and the ERAS societies. This year we continue the full multidisciplinary, European, and educational dimensions of the meeting. This gives the full perspectives to our goals and place it on an international level along with the “ERAS France Symposium”.

“ HBPSurg “ is reinforced by several conferences and an International panel of experts. The educational objectives are designed to provide participants with the most recent updates, concepts and progress in this area, as well as the technical and medical knowledge.

At this meeting, participants will attend lectures, state of the art, clinical case presentation while actively participating in discussions. With the concern for an appropriation of new acquisitions with clear messages to take away.

Looking forward to seeing you,

Mustapha Adham
